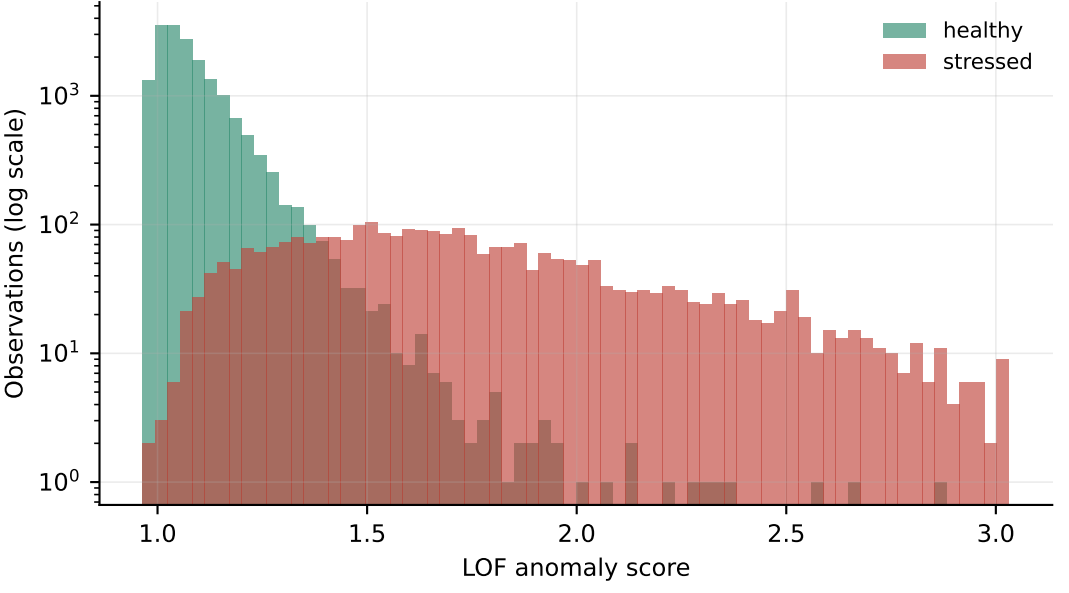
Are the two populations actually separable?


Median score 1.058 for healthy observations against 1.672 for stressed. The overlap region is the irreducible error — no choice of threshold removes it, which is why the ranking matters more than the cut.