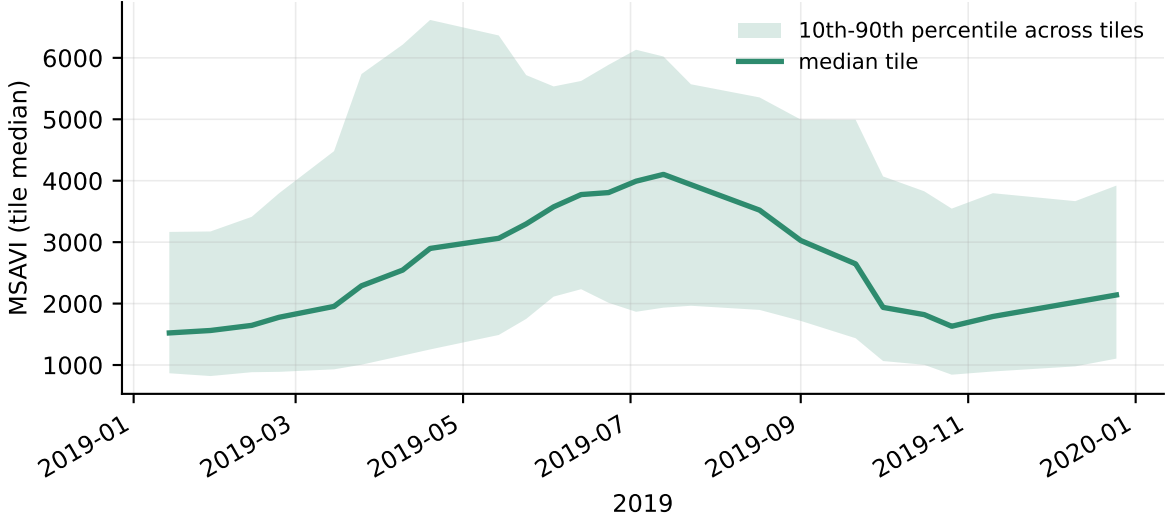
The seasonal signal the detector works against


Median MSAVI over all 3,328 tiles at each retained pass. The canopy cycle moves the index 2.7-fold across the year, more than the 40% stress injected to test the detector, which is why every threshold is per tile and computed against a rolling baseline rather than a fixed value.