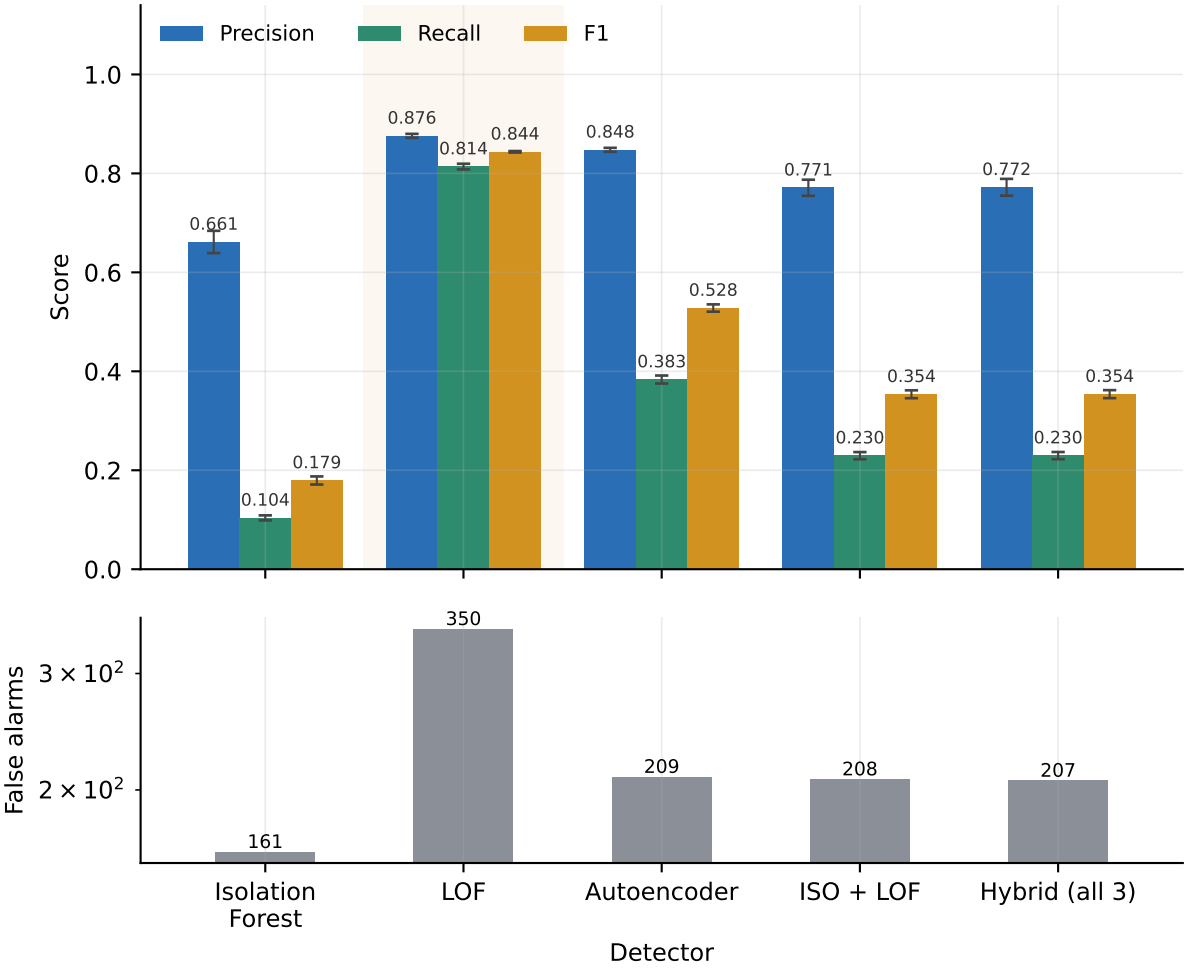
Ensembling the detectors makes them worse


Standalone LOF reaches F1 0.844; the three-model hybrid reaches 0.354, a factor of 2.4. Score-level averaging drags a strong ranking towards the weaker members. Each detector gets its own clean-data threshold, since the scores are on different scales.